Once upon a time, in a faraway land, lived a beautiful princess.

Her skin was white as snow, her lips were red as roses and her hair was black like the night. Her name was Snow White.

खूब आदले तेपार एक दूर प्रदेशांत एक सुंदर राजकुमारी रावी.

Snow White had a beautiful but proud stepmother who was a witch.

Everyday, she stood in front of her magic mirror and asked, “Mirror, mirror on the wall, who is the fairest of us all?”

The mirror used to answer, “You are, oh Queen!”

However, one day, the mirror replied, “You are beautiful but Snow White is the fairest of them all!”

The jealous Queen was so angry that she ordered Snow White to be taken to the forest and killed.

परंतु एक दिवस कान्नाडीन नित्याचो राग बदललो
संवसारांत तूंच अती सुंदर व्हय पुणून तुजे परस

आपोवन आदेश दिलो चला..... त्या स्नो व्हायिटा क
अटंग रानांत घेवन वचा आनी तिचें कत्ल करा.

But the guard took pity on Snow White and instead left her deep in the forest.

Snow White wandered through the forest alone till she finally saw a strange house in the middle of the woods.

The house belonged to seven dwarfs.

The kind dwarfs heard her sad story and said, "You can live with us, Snow White."

"Oh thank you!" she said. "I can take care of you!"

So everyday, when the dwarfs went off into the forest to work, Snow White stayed back.

हे सात ठेंगणे बरे दयावंत. तांणी स्नो व्हायिटो ली दुख्ख भरिली काणी आयकली. स्नो व्हायिट, तू कांय बेजार करुनाका. तूं आमचे बरोबर राव. अशें तांणी म्हळें.

In the mean time, the wicked stepmother eagerly asked her mirror the question.

But the mirror again answered, “You are still fair, but none to Snow White can compare. Deep within the forest glen, there she stays with seven little men.”

हे वाटेन ती दुश्ट राणी सदां आपले हारश्या कडेन प्रश्न विचारी.

Snow White was scared to open the door to strangers, but the woman pleaded.

She said, “Look how big, round and red they are! They are delicious!”
